DRESS CODE

The HGC Dress Code is an integral part of the Club's commitment to traditional values. As such, it is important that all Members and their guests adhere to the stipulations of the Dress Code in every area of the Club. While specific allowances are made for Members and guests utilizing the pool and racquet facilities, when entering any other area of the Club, compliance with the appropriate Dress Code is required. The purpose of the Club's Dress Code is not to dictate fashion, but rather simply to establish such a standard of tasteful and traditional dress guidelines as will insure an atmosphere of dignity and respect for fellow Members.

CLUB HOUSE DRESS CODE

The Clubhouse Dress Code allows for smart casual dress at all times.

For gentlemen, proper smart casual attire includes only sport shirts, golf shirts, slacks, and shorts of Bermuda length. Shirts must be collared (with long or short sleeves) or uncollared (with long sleeves) and must be tucked in. Gentlemen dining in the Fairway Room or Culligan Room in the evening are encouraged to wear jackets.

For ladies, proper smart casual attire includes only dresses, golf shirts, slacks and golf shorts or skirts of Bermuda length or longer. Ladies' sportswear must be collared (with or without sleeves) or uncollared (with long or short sleeves).

Except as expressly provided below, the following items are at all times specifically prohibited in the Clubhouse (which includes the Patio):

- Swim attire
- T-shirts, tank tops, mesh shirts
- Warm up/sweat suits
- Undergarment type of attire
- Hats (exc: permitted on the Patio)
- Tennis attire (exc: permitted on the Patio)
- Any item bearing a slogan
- Cargo style shorts and slacks or shorts and slacks designed with more than two total noticeable pockets on the front and the sides
- Jeans, denim material of any color and items denim in appearance
- Shorts that are not of Bermuda length or longer
- Cut off shorts
- Any item of attire that is deemed by the Club to be within or similar to any of the foregoing categories of attire

GOLF COURSE DRESS CODE

For gentlemen, proper golf attire includes only sport shirts, golf shirts, slacks, golf shorts of Bermuda length, as well as appropriate golf footwear. Shirts must be collared (with long or short sleeves) or uncollared (with long sleeves) and must be tucked in. Hats of any appropriate type are to be worn properly.

For ladies, proper golf attire includes only golf shirts, golf slacks, golf shorts or skirts of Bermuda length or longer, as well as appropriate golf footwear. Ladies' tops must be collared (with or without sleeves) or uncollared (with long or short sleeves). It is highly preferable that all shirts be tucked in at the waist.

The following items are at all times specifically prohibited on the Golf Course and the Driving Range:

SWIMMING POOL DRESS CODE

Members and guests are asked to use discretion regarding appropriate swimwear. Members and guests are asked to enter and leave the Pool area in appropriate cover-up attire. When members and guests, who are using the Pool, enter any other area of the Club, compliance with the appropriate Dress Code is required.

CELLULAR PHONES

The use of cellular telephones or any other portable phone is PROHIBITED on Club property with the exception of the men's and ladies' locker rooms, a parked car, the pool area, or in case of a medical emergency.

SMOKING POLICY

As of April 1, 2006, New Jersey State Law prohibits smoking in all indoor areas and in outdoor areas in close proximity to active doorways. Please be mindful of this change as the Club is required to comply.

VALET PARKING / BAGS

Upon arrival at the Club, drive under the portico adjacent to the front door. Club valets will attend to your golf bag and park your car.
